INTITLED

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Sale of Intoxicating Liquors in Ireland on Saturday and Sunday, and for other purposes connected therewith. A.D. 1893.

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

- 5 1. The Sale of Liquors on Sunday (Ireland) Act, 1878, as amended by this Act, shall continue in force until Parliament otherwise enacts, and the provisions of section one of the said Act with reference to the places in the said section excepted are hereby amended, and shall be construed as if for seven o'clock five o'clock
10 were substituted, and as if for the said excepted places were substituted the cities of Dublin, Cork, Limerick, Waterford, and Belfast.
- 15 2. It shall not be lawful for any person to sell or expose for sale intoxicating liquor, or to open or keep open any premises for the sale of the same, on Saturdays after nine o'clock at night; and the provisions of every Act (in regard to penalties and otherwise) relating to selling or exposing for sale, or purchasing, intoxicating liquor, or opening or keeping open any premises for the sale of 20 intoxicating liquor, or being present in or upon any such premises at any hour, shall be amended in this particular, and shall apply as if the hour of nine o'clock were specified therein as the hour at which licensed premises are required to be closed on Saturdays. Where any business, other than the sale of intoxicating liquors, is carried on in the licensed premises the whole of such 25 premises shall be closed at the hour aforesaid, unless the portion of the same in which such sale of intoxicating liquors is carried on
- Continuance and extension of 41 & 42 Vict. c. 72.

Closing hours on Saturday.
- [Bill 406.]

A.D. 1893. is structurally separated from the remainder of the building. Provided that nothing in this Act shall in any way interfere with the right of any licensed person who is the owner or lessee of a theatre, music hall, or other place of public amusement, or who is the proprietor or manager of a hotel or restaurant, as defined in the forty-third and forty-fourth Victoria, chapter twenty, subsections three and four, who are in that respect to have the same rights and privileges as they now have under the existing licensing laws. 5

Exemptions.
Bonâ fide
travellers. 3. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to apply to sales of intoxicating liquor to lodgers, or to sale of intoxicating liquor in packet boats, or in canteens in pursuance of the Acts regulating the same, or shall preclude the sale at any time at a railway station of intoxicating liquor on arrival or departure of trains, or to bonâ fide travellers. 10 15

For the purposes of this Act and the other Acts relating to the sale of intoxicating liquors, a person shall not be deemed to be a bonâ fide traveller unless the place where he lodged during the preceding night is at least six miles distant from the place where he demands to be supplied with liquor, such distance to be calculated by the nearest public thoroughfare. 20

Short title and commencement. 4. This Act may be cited as the Intoxicating Liquors (Ireland) Act, 1893. This Act shall commence and come into operation on the tenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three. 25
